

FRANCE.

The Electoral Bill Still Before the Assembly.

M. Ledru-Rollin on the Franchise.

M. Thiers for Peace and Accord with "The Wishes of Europe."

PARIS, June 3, 1874.

M. Ledru Rollin made the principal speech of the sitting. He denied that "the Assembly had the right to alter the franchise. The present system of general elections should not be touched, nor should any other be substituted therefor; the plebiscitum, which means invoked, was a parody of universal suffrage."

At this point there were loud protests from the Bonapartist benches and cheers from the Left. The noise and confusion were so great that the speaker could not be heard for some minutes.

When the excitement had subsided M. Ledru Rollin resumed. Alluding to the failure of the majority to restore a monarchy or even form a government, he declared that the Assembly, being powerless to constitute a monarchy, should maintain the Republic, which had never been seriously tried, and he concluded by urging "a speedy dissolution of the Chamber."

M. Thiers for Peaceful Accord with the "Wishes of Europe."

PARIS, June 3, 1874.

Ex-President Thiers to-day received a deputation of Frenchmen from Peru, and in reply to their address, said he "believed in the maintenance of peace, which was in accordance with the wishes of Europe."

English Opinion of French Party Fusion.

LONDON, June 4—5:30 A. M.

The Times says the attempts at an alliance between the Centres of the French Assembly will probably fail. The right objects to a recognition of the Republic, which the Left Centre considers indispensable.

THE AMERICAN PILGRIMS.

Catholic Preparation for their Reception in the Holy City.

ROME, June 3, 1874.

The American and English Catholics in Rome propose to give a public reception to the American pilgrims on their arrival here, and to make other demonstrations of sympathy; but the Pope deprecates such a display, as it might cause a disturbance. The people generally appear to be indifferent.

SPAIN.

San Sebastian Relieved by the Republicans.

SAN SEBASTIAN, June 3, 1874.

A reinforcement of 2,000 republicans has reached this city, greatly to the relief of the people.

Prussian Denial of the Hohenzollern Crown Candidature.

BERLIN, June 3, 1874.

A semi-official denial is given to the reports that the candidature of a Hohenzollern prince for the crown of Spain is to be revived.

Captain General of the Basques.

MADRID, June 3, 1874.

General Loma has been appointed Captain General of the Basque Provinces.

Another Battle at Hand.

BAYONNE, June 3, 1874.

A battle is imminent at Estella, where the Carlists are in great force.

The Mission to Washington and Probable Man.

MADRID, June 3, 1874.

The name of Señor Rasco, now mentioned in connection with the Spanish Ministry at Washington.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA.

BERLIN, June 3, 1874.

The Czar Alexander will meet the Emperor of Germany about the middle of June at Ems.

MUTINY ON SHIPBOARD.

Alarming Scene on Board a Vessel Bound for New York.

LONDON, June 3, 1874.

The crew of the ship Neptune mutinied yesterday when the vessel was leaving Liverpool at Liverpool, bound for New York. After a general fight, in which knives and marlin spikes were freely used, fifteen of the mutineers were arrested and removed to the shore. Several persons were wounded.

CUBA.

The Gold Supply and the Money Market—Trade Dull at Havana.

HAVANA, June 3, 1874.

The Fox de Cuba says the government contemplates public sales of the gold it is now receiving from the revenues. The Fox hopes this news will restore some quiet to the agitated money market. Very little business is doing. The prices of the necessities of life have more than doubled.

The City of Bayamo in the Hands of the Patriots Once More—Success of the Patriots Arms—The Pending Attack on Manzanillo.

The following is an extract of a private letter from Havana, received in this city yesterday by a prominent Cuban, and bearing the date of 25th May.

Bayamo has been in possession of the Cuban forces since the 20th inst. Further details are anxiously awaited on the subject.

General Figueroa, commanding the Spanish forces in the Central Department, and Brigadier General Basco, who acts in conjunction with him, both at the head of a column of 4,000 men, have been defeated by General Antonio Gomez, who subsequently made a rapid march upon Principe and captured a large amount of booty in the neighborhood of Cienfuegos another fight took place, when Colonel Quintana, in charge of the Spanish forces, was killed and his column cut to pieces by the patriots.

The Cuban forces were at the gates of Manzanillo and will probably soon attack that place.

The Spaniards in Havana are much depressed, but amongst them Cocha, and say that he is making money out of the island's misfortunes, but add that "he shall not leave the place alive."

Bayamo is the birthplace of Guespedes, Aguilera, Figueroa, Pacheco, and other leaders of the Cuban revolution. This city pronounced itself in favor of Cuban independence on October 11, 1858, and was burned by the Cubans on November 27, 1865, at the approach of Valmadesa. Subsequently the Spaniards returned to the city, and the historical plain of Yara is not far distant from Bayamo.

THE DERBY.

The Great Holiday Race of England.

"GEORGE FREDERICK" THE WINNER.

How Epsom Downs Looked During the Event.

LONDON, June 3, 1874.

The great race of the year in this country, the run for the Derby Stakes, took place on Epsom Downs to-day, and was won by Mr. W. S. Cartwright's chestnut colt George Frederick. Lord Rosebery's (formerly Sir Tatton Sykes) brown colt Couronne de Fer, which since yesterday morning has been the favorite for the race, took the second money. Lord Palmont's chestnut colt Atlantic, the victor in the Two Thousand Guineas, and which up to yesterday morning was the favorite, came in third.

There were no starters out of 213 subscribers. The betting just before the commencement of the race was 5 to 1 against George Frederick, 4 to 1 against Couronne de Fer and 11 to 1 against Atlantic.

The weather was delightful and very favorable for the race. The number of people that congregated at Epsom to witness the sport is said to have been larger than ever before. The hedges from London to Epsom, which is about twenty miles distant in Surrey, commenced early in the morning and continued for hours. The metropolis during the day presented a Sunday-like appearance, Parliament having adjourned and it being a quiet holiday on the Stock Exchange. The two railway lines connecting London with Epsom Downs, under ordinary circumstances, are regularly deserted, were crammed with passengers, while the carriage road was filled with a seething tide of humanity. Everything that went on wheels was at a premium. The vehicles were four deep and police and spectators lined the way from one end to the other.

The following is the SUMMARY.

RENEWAL OF THE DERBY STAKES OF 50 SOVS. each, half forfeit; for colts, 8 to 10 lbs., and fillies, 8 to 6 lbs., then three years old; about a mile and a half. The owner of the second horse to receive 100 sovs. out of the stakes. (212 subscribers.)
